Lieutenant Governor Mark Robinson to Give the State of the State Republican Response

Raleigh, NC

Lieutenant Governor Mark Robinson, who also serves as the President of the North Carolina Senate, will give the Republican Response following Governor Cooper's State of the State Address.

Lieutenant Governor Robinson states, "It is my honor to represent Republicans in the upcoming response to Governor Cooper's State of the State Address. I look forward to highlighting the great work we have done for the people of North Carolina, and the vision we have moving forward."

The Republican response will air after Governor Cooper's State of the State address, following a one-minute delay, as a continuation of the livestream.
